Cornwall

“It has saved too many hours, days, months of anxiety to remember, and that feeling of helplessness and hopelessness.”

"I must say I never thought I had so many essential and fairly essential things to buy for myself (clothes / footwear) and the home until I had the money to buy some of them! Without means, things just wear out / run out and never get replaced and now my debts are paid off. It was just in time as they were already spiralling out of control. Honestly you are brilliant. Thank you so much..."

We helped Joss (Name changed to protect identity), who was struggling on a very low income, claim a total of £8,745 in benefits back pay which she should have been entitled to.

Help us to continue to support people like Joss across Cornwall, set up a regular gift today and helping us to continue to provide free advice to everyone who needs it.
